

Tracy Sheasley has been a retail industry professional for over 30 years. For the past 15 of those years, Tracy has been with American Eagle Outfitters. In her current role as Merchandise Planning Manager, Tracy leads a team that is responsible for developing and executing financial strategies for sales, margin and inventory for the intimates and swim business lines for American Eagle's "Aerie" brand.

In her personal life, Tracy has a passion for volunteering and giving back to the community. She volunteers with Wesley Family Services and she has been a member of the Transitional Services, Inc. Board of Directors since 2019. Tracy resides in Cranberry Township with her husband, Aaron.